

2020 JOHN GLASSCO LITERARY TRANSLATION GUIDELINES

1. The work submitted must be the translator's or co-translators' first book-length translation published by a recognized publishing house. Co-translations are eligible if the translation is each translator's first book-length published translation.
2. The competition is open to Canadian citizens and permanent residents only. Applicants residing outside of Canada must provide proof of Canadian citizenship.
3. Self-published books and books available only in a digital format are not eligible.
4. The book must have been published between July 1, 2019, and June 30, 2020.
5. There are no restrictions as to the language of the original text. However, the translation must be in French or English. Eligible works may be submitted by the publisher, translator or any other party.
6. Eligible translations include novels, short stories, novellas, plays, poetry, biographies, essays (history, philosophy, literature...), children's literature, graphic novels, etc. Ineligible translations include manuals, textbooks, dictionaries, glossaries, theses, academic papers, etc. The Glassco Prize Jury reserves the right to decide whether a title submitted is a literary work or not. Please consult the Canada Council for the Arts glossary: <http://canadacouncil.ca/glossary>.
7. The prize winner will be informed before the end of November 2020 and the prize will be awarded at a virtual gala in the first week of December, 2020. The jury's decision is final.
8. The prize awarded by the Literary Translators' Association of Canada consists of a cheque for $1,000 and one year LTAC membership.
9. FOUR copies of the original work and the published translation must be sent with the completed submission form to the following address before October 2, 2020:

Literary Translators' Association of Canada
CP 1170 Montreal SUCC. H. Montreal, QC. H3G 2N1

Due to irregular circumstances and complications stemming from COVID-19 related closures and interruptions, we also ask that you send digital copies of the original work and the translation to info@attlc-ltac.org.

10. Please address any questions to the LTAC Coordinator either by email (info@attlcltac.org).
